

BENDER TENTS AND BUMPER CARS

Celebrating Gypsy, Roma, and Traveller Cultures
in the Early Years

A new product for raising children's awareness of Traveller cultures through play, using day-to-day resources and lively and fun learning activities

- Contains a full and interesting history and background information on all Traveller groups
- Some great ideas for embedding awareness of Gypsy, Roma and Traveller (GRT) cultures across the EYFS framework
- Loads of information about useful resources, books and websites
- Learning focuses around crafts, transport, circus, fairgrounds, fairs and associated stories

Bender Tents and Bumper Cars offers many opportunities to raise awareness of the GRT travelling way of life and for children to grow up free from prejudice and discrimination. Early Years workers play an important role in local communities, promoting community cohesion.

The aim of the pack is to provide you with a wealth of ideas for resources and activities with children enabling this all important work. There is lots of information on the background to all these cultures. This will help extend your knowledge and understanding so that you can confidently pass this onto children in a positive and productive way – with some exciting learning outcomes.

There are 60 pages of useful information and some worksheets to colour in. These are all on a CD for you to share with colleagues in your setting to help and support GRT families and enhance learning and cultural development.
